

Raised in a music loving family in Alberta, Country singer/songwriter Aaron Goodvin started singing and writing at a young age, building a local reputation as a dynamic performer with a rock solid portfolio of songs. Later he started to make trips down to Nashville to test the waters and after signing with publishing powerhouse Warner Chappell Music, Aaron scored his first major league contribution with the track "Out Like That" on Luke Bryan's multi-platinum Crash My Party. Warner Music Canada welcomed Aaron Goodvin to its roster in October 2015 and in 2016 Johnny Reid invited Aaron to join his cross-Canada tour. Aaron released his debut album with Warner in summer 2017 with 2 Top 10 singles, and went GOLD with the single "Lonely Drum", pumping up an already busy season playing festivals and shows from Prince Edward Island to British Columbia. Aaron was also nominated for the Rising Star Award at the 2017 Canadian Country Music Awards.

Aaron's versatility and passion for writing and performing is second to none and he is on top of his game. Whether it's a small intimate gathering or a crowd of thousands, Aaron will light up a stage, connect with his audience, and deliver a show-stopping performance. "I want to get out there and connect with people through my music. I'm a passionate guy who tries to write about real life things that mean something to a lot of people."
